Thought for the Week

By Higher Things Posted February 2, 2018 In Daily Reflections

"Lord, now you are letting your servant depart in peace, according to your word; for my eyes have seen your salvation that you have prepared in the presence of all peoples." (Luke 2:29-31)

In the Name + of Jesus. Amen. Simeon sang these words as he held the Christ Child. This Child looked ordinary to the eyes, but by the testimony of the Spirit and by faith Simeon knew that he was holding the very salvation of the world. The Spirit promised that he would die after seeing the Messiah. As Simeon looked at his King, he knew he would die soon, and he could die in peace.

You know this song of Simeon. We sing it at the end of every Divine Service. That's very appropriate. After all, Christians sing these words after taking the Lord's Supper. Just as Simeon held the body of Christ in his hands, we have held His body in our hands as we gathered around the altar. Our eyes have beheld our salvation. All we see is bread, but by the testimony of the Spirit and by faith we know that this bread is what our Lord said it is: "This is My Body."

Now, we may depart in peace. We may leave the Divine Service with peaceful minds and hearts. Anything can happen to us in the world—poverty, sickness, persecution, and even death. Although we know that we might suffer such things, we depart in peace. Our eyes have seen our salvation.

Jesus' body was beaten, broken, and buried. Jesus suffered such agony on the cross and He died. He suffered such evil in order to reverse it. The body that was put to death was raised from the dead. Those who eat His risen body receive His immortality.

What's the worst that can happen? I could die? Is that all? On the Day of the Lord, Jesus will raise me from the dead. I will step out of my grave and see my salvation with my very eyes. So, as I walk away from the altar, I am at peace. Nothing—not even death—can hurt me. In the Name + of Jesus. Amen.

In the arms of her who bore Him, Virgin pure, behold Him lie While His ages saints adore Him Ere in perfect faith they die. Alleluia, alleluia! Lo, the incarnate God Most High! (In His Temple Now Behold Him, LSB 519:2)

Students and Families we are praying for this week...

Each week in our faculty devotions and classroom devotions we lift up our LCS students and their families in prayer. During the week of February 5th we will be praying for Leah Pottschmidt, Levi Pottschmidt, Aubree Prewitt, Heidi Rautenkranz, Ellena Ray, Karcyn Ray, Remington Ray, Claire and Lily Redicker, Matthew Reedy, Ian Reinhart, Cooper Robinson, Sam Rohr, Allen Roller, Kai Romilus, Paisley Rotert, and Sophia Rudolph.

Basketball Season Notes

Congratulations to the LCS 8th grade girls and boys basketball teams who were recently selected to participate in the Indiana Lutheran State Basketball Tournament. The state tournament will be held in Ft. Wayne, February 23-25.

Before moving on to the state tournament both teams will be participating in their respective LIT tournaments. The Girls LIT will take place February 10-11 at Trinity Lutheran High School and the Boys LIT will take place February 16-18 at Immanuel, Seymour. Brackets for both the girls and boys LIT tournaments can be found at www.lcsaints.net.

Additionally the 7th and 8th grade boys game that was postponed versus Crothersville on February 1st has been rescheduled for Monday, February 12.

School Spirit Days

Next week we will have three school spirit days to help get the 8th grade girls basketball team fired up for the LIT tournament. The spirit days are as follows:

Wednesday, February 7th - White Out Day (students are encouraged to wear white)

Thursday, February 8th - Hawaiian Day

Friday, February 9th - Red, White, and Blue Day

February Chapel Offering

During the month of February we will again be collecting items for the Orphan Grain Train. This month we will be collecting items to make hygiene kits that the Orphan Grain Train will distribute where needed. Items that are being collected are listed on the back page of the newsletter. Students may also give monetary offerings throughout the month. Monetary offerings will be used to purchase needed items for the hygiene kits.

Basketball Tournament Volunteers Needed

Lutheran Central School will be hosting the 8th Grade girls LIT Basketball Tournament. The tournament will be held at Trinity Lutheran High School on February 10 and 11. As you can see below we are in need of many volunteers to make this tournament a success. This weekend is also the biggest fundraiser that we have for LCS athletics. The revenue that is generated from this tournament is used to run the athletic program for the following year. You may sign up by writing your name in the desired time slot and returning this sheet to the school office, or you may contact the school office with the job and time you would like to sign up for.

Thanks in advance for your help!

Mr. Sprengel
