

Memory for the Week of 10/8-10/12

This week we will be starting the Lord's Prayer for memory. All memory will be fill-in-the-blank.

Tuesday, 10/9 (The Lord's Prayer: The Introduction: New)
Our Father who art in heaven.

What does this mean? With these words God tenderly invites us to believe that He is our true Father and that we are His true children, so that with all boldness and confidence we may ask Him as dear children ask their dear father.

Tuesday, 10/9 (The Lord's Prayer: The Introduction: Old)
Our Father who art in heaven.

What does this mean? God would by these words tenderly invite us to believe that He is our true Father, and that we are His true children, so that we may with all boldness and confidence ask Him as dear children ask their dear father.

Wednesday, 10/10 (The Lord's Prayer: The First Petition: New)
Hallowed be Thy name.

What does this mean? God's name is certainly holy in itself, but we pray in this petition that it may be kept holy among us also.

Wednesday, 10/10 (The Lord's Prayer: The First Petition: Old)
Hallowed be Thy name.

What does this mean? God's name is indeed holy in itself; but we pray in this petition that it may be holy among us also.

Thursday, 10/11 (The Lord's Prayer: The First Petition: New continued...)
How is God's name kept holy? God's name is kept holy when the Word of God is taught in its truth and purity, and we, as the children of God, also lead holy lives according to it.

Thursday, 10/11 (The Lord's Prayer: The First Petition: Old continued...)

How is this done? When the Word of God is taught in its truth and purity, and we, as the children of God, also lead a holy life according to it.

Friday, 10/12 (The Lord's Prayer: The First Petition: New continued...)

Help us to do this, dear Father in heaven! But anyone who teaches or lives contrary to God's Word profanes the name of God among us. Protect us from this, heavenly Father!

Friday, 10/12 (The Lord's Prayer: The First Petition: Old continued...)

This grant us, dear Father in heaven. But he that teaches and lives otherwise than God's Word teaches, profanes the name of God among us. From this preserve us, Heavenly Father.
