Weekly Reflection

Big and Tiny

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through Him, and without Him was not any thing made that was made. (John 1:1-3)

Advent for us starts where it always has—with the One who created everything. It starts with God the Father, who made us and loved us—and with God the Son, who came to be our Savior Jesus. And it starts with the Holy Spirit, who gives us faith and life in Jesus.

But it also starts with you in all of your tininess—somebody sitting in a comfortable chair reading in the lamplight; a parent putting the little ones to bed with a prayer and a story about Jesus; a driver with your eyes on the road, watching out for hazards while the back of your mind is preoccupied with work or errands. You are a single speck of human life among billions of others on a troubled planet in an ordinary galaxy of the immense universe. And yet Advent is about you, because you are the reason Jesus came.

You matter to Him. God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God—why should He care about you? And yet He does. He has told you so: "Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? And not one of them is forgotten before God. Why, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not; you are of more value than many sparrows" (Luke 12:6-8).

So here we are, in Advent—watching and praying and marveling as we see how the great God Himself, the Most High, comes down to us as a tiny baby Himself, dependent on us for nursing and diaper-changing and holding and singing to sleep. And we rejoice, because we too depend on Him who grew up and suffered and died and rose again for our sakes. Because He loves us, our tiny lives have become infinitely meaningful. He has made us the adopted children of God Himself.

November/December Chapel Mission

It's starting to get cold outside! And for that reason, the Lutheran Junior Honor Society (LJHA) will be collecting money to purchase hats and mittens/gloves for our November/December chapel mission. Items purchased with your generous donations will be taken to the Jackson Co. Clothing Center in Seymour. The class that collects the most money will win a prize! Collections start on Monday, Nov. 16 - Friday, Dec. 11. Thank you for your support in this effort.

Clothing Donations

The lower grades are in need of new or gently used clothing to have on hand in case of accidents and spills. The items we use the most are girls bottoms, especially leggings, sizes 6-10, and underwear (new only please). We also need boys athletic type bottoms or jeans sizes 6-10 and underwear. Please send any items for donation to your child's teacher. Thank you!

COVID Update

To avoid confusion as Jackson County was designated as Level Red based on the COVID-19 metrics, we want to share that Lutheran Central School will continue operations as we have since late October. Middle School students will continue on a hybrid schedule through December 18th and students in grades K-5 will remain in session everyday with "in person" instruction. Preschool students will also continue on their regular schedule.
